EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER WHITEHORSE, YUKON Reference No. 05-19-1021

This is a great opportunity for someone, who likes to be in on the ground floor, to join a dynamic, fast paced team within the Vuntut Gwitchin First Nation Government.

The Opportunity:

Reporting to the Associate Director of Intergovernmental Relations and Governance, you will lead the implementation and assessment of the Vuntut Gwitchin Government communications strategy; and manage communications and engagement activities across the organization.

You will provide outreach, media relations, communications expertise and guidance, through the Intergovernmental Relations and Governance Department, to Chief and Council, the executive team, and all departments to promote a clear understanding of VGG's goals, objectives, projects, programs, activities and services among citizens, partners, and the public. You will develop, organize, and execute ongoing activities, plans, procedures, strategies, and campaigns for diverse audiences.

The Candidate:

As the ideal candidate you will possess a degree or diploma in communications, journalism, marketing, or an equivalent combination of training and experience. You must have at least 5 years' related work experience in communications, public relations, media relations, or marketing. Training or experience in graphic design is strongly preferred.

Your demonstrated capacity for creativity and innovation; ability to exercise initiative, resourcefulness, sound judgement, flexibility and problem solving to meet goals and deliver results will be key to your success. Your track record of proven ability to provide sound communications and engagement advice to leaders and colleagues based on knowledge of trends and best practices will enhance your ability to achieve results. Demonstrated experience in web content development including writing for the web/social media, search engine optimization and digital asset integration is essential.

The VGG offers a competitive benefits package. Relocation assistance is available.

Salary: $79,831.00-$103,759.00 Status: Full-Time Indeterminate

Secondments are eligible to apply.
